Pretty hard and doesn't give you a lot of space to work with to avoid the monsters but still of fan of the atmosphere and creatures. It's really difficult and gona take me forever to finish.. I can open but I can't play :(Its very good, All it need a minigun. Suitable, but not for relaxation, because the farther away the more difficult. WORST EXPANSION IMO!

It add some dumb dark and bright fate options. It makes game annoying as *****!

I have it with season pass so I cannot refind it because I would no doubt about this!!!

If this expansion would not have this idiotic fate mechanics I would play it. Instead it is removed from my Talisman!. Don't let the stars showing difficulty worry you, you can probably pick any class and it will be fine if you've just started out. it seems you can also make multiple characters, so you can try out different classes! my only problem so far is that things seem a little cluttered at times and after a while it starts to be annoying walking around the same areas.. If you like Trackmania - you will love this!. Exploding Boner Rollercoaster honestly this is better than gang beasts in my opinion i adore this if anything happened to this i would be so angry but legit i adore this so much and hope it can succeed more than it has so far thanks for making a dream come true!. Classic game from when I was young and I'm still loving the time I spend on it!. Don't buy this game if you are not achievement hunter or using Astats for tracking website because i guarantee you will get bored after a first few hours playing this game.. I am not a tennis buff by any means but this game is still entertaining. I recommend the following way to get into it: first, play for a while with all the visual aids on, so that you get a feel on how the controls work; basically how and when you can make different shots work. After you have it down to a degree, switch the aids off. It's a hugely rewarding feeling when you manage to land tight shots just based on timing and positioning.

You can also play doubles with a friend, make sure to try that.

. One of the best casual poker games out there and for sure the best one on Steam, at the moment, in my opinion. It's important to note tho that this game is for casual players who are not very much into serious poker strategy. I do play online poker for real money at gambling sites versus real people and I can tell you for sure that strategies applied there, even on lowest stakes against dumbest of players, won't work very often on AI in this game.

AI in this game is rather silly and most of the time plays nothing like real thinking player would. All tho you can certainly still learn how it "thinks" and use it for your advantage to predict it's behaviors. It's not like AI is completely random and doesn't make sense. But still, if you want a serious poker game where you could apply in-depth poker strategies this game is not for you. But it is excellent if you are newcomer to poker or just want to casually have fun time.

Game has very attractive graphics and nice progression system where you buy houses and cities, what gives you profit every day once you own them. You gain fame and stars what allows you to challenge stronger and stronger opponents once you get more famous. You can walk around the city and talk to it's people, it's like a tiny poker RPG. The game also has a story which is told through newspapers what pops on your screen and NPCs what you can click to talk with. Not much of a story but it is there. And you can spend extra money you make on hats to customize your character. Obviously poker play is this game's main focus but it's nice that these RPG features are there.

Would I recommend Premium Edition? Yes, for sure! Would I recommend it for 20$? Probably not. Wait till this game goes on sale and then get Premium Edition. In the end of a day it's very repetitive and AI is not smart enough to justify paying 20$ for a flash game, which is what this game essentially originated as. If it would have multiplayer, like Governor of Poker 3, then it would be worth 20$ in my opinion, but it does not.. Pretty basic single-player beat 'em up. The mechanics aren't groundbreaking and not having a way to view the whole map is a little disappointing. There are these pages that act as spells that you don't know what they do until you pick them up. Then there's a randomizer page that resets what you have already used and now all those pages that you've learned what they do is just gone. The audio lines are pretty repetative and the thump when you switch between Finn and Jake is really loud for no reason. I guess if you're a really big fan of the show or have nostalgia for Toe Jam and Earl (which this takes a lot from) I guess pick it up. But it's fairly bland and have things that just urk me.. Crucible Falls is a very enjoyable coop game with interesting cooperative riddles. We had a lot of fun in our nearly 6h gaming session and even after several playthroughs we didn't discover all the different endings. All riddles are solvable, we never discovered a game breaking bug (hint: read the title of the plan next to the alien cube). The visual side of the game is great, not perfect, but it generates a spooky atmosphere. To be honest I had more fun with this game than with the other AAA Games that came out recently. :). This game, for the fantastic price of 2 big ones, you can get this piece of work. From the stunning graphics to the amazing gameplay, this game ceases to amaze. Your agricultural adventure awaits you, will you accept the challenge and run a farm?. Poorly made, frustrating soundtrack.. It's only 5 euro's but I was surprised the game was already finished after three hours and I didn't even have half of the achievements.
